

DONNA WICE: SENIOR AWARD

Donna grew up on a farm in Innisfil and has strong ties to the community, giving back in any way she can. She is a long-time member of the Innisfil Historical Society and current 1st Vice President of the Simcoe County Historical Association. Donna conducts walking tours of Stroud for students and organized a “School for Senior” event to bring retirement homes to Knock Schoolhouse. Donna was also the committee chairperson for the production of many books detailing the history of Innisfil. She works closely with the Innisfil Library organizing historical photos and documents of Innisfil. Thank you Donna for your dedication and hard work!
