

MACKENZIE OLIVER: YOUTH AWARD

Mackenzie is the founder of the 'I Love Me Club.' A club she started when she was in grade 3 after helping a younger student who was being bullied. The I Love Me Club now has nearly 5000 members promoting positive self-esteem and calling for an end to bullying everywhere. Mackenzie travels the province to speak with youth, reminding girls and boys of all ages that they can make a difference. She also fundraises for Gilda's Club, the Barrie Food Bank and the Women and Children's Shelter. Mackenzie has also done terrific volunteer work for the Prom Blitz, Autism galas and went to Africa with Ghana Medical Help. Having volunteered both at home and abroad, she plays an important role in our community. Way to go Mackenzie!
