

MONICA MANZATO: INDIVIDUAL AWARD

Monica started volunteering with the Barrie Public Library about 3 years ago as a way to complete her community service hours. She continues to volunteer with the library's Visiting Library Service (VLS). Working as a team, Monica and her mom Cathy pick up pre-selected materials and deliver them to patrons. Monica is an inspiring and contributing member of our community. Monica has a passion for helping those in need and brings such happiness to VLS clients. Monica has donated countless hours of service to the VLS program and her efforts are greatly appreciated by all who know her!
